Police Hospitals
Tripathi Shri Sharad

Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Government proposes to set up police hospitals on the lines of army hospitals;

(b) if so, the details thereof, State-wise; and

(c) the total allocation made in this regard, State-wise including Uttar Pradesh?

Answer

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS
(SHRI KIREN RIJIJU)

(a) to (c): At present Government has no proposal to set up police hospitals on the line of Army hospitals. However, Government has approved establishment of a Central Armed Police Forces Institute of Medical Sciences (CAPFIMS) comprising of a 500-bed General Hospital, a 300-bed Super Specialty Hospital, a Nursing College and a School of Paramedics, at Maidan Garhi, New Delhi to provide health care facilities to CAPF personnel and their families. Necessary order has been issued on 22.10.2013.
Moreover, Government has already sanctioned one 200-bedded, six 100-bedded and thirty two 50-bedded Composite Hospitals to the Central Armed Police Forces (CAPFs), apart from Unit Hospital/Medical Inspection Room authorized in each Battalion. State wise details of the Composite Hospitals are at Annexure.I.
